Housing Selection 2013

A GUIDE FOR RESIDENTS

Hello! I know you're probably wondering all about how you're supposed to get into the Residence Hall of your choice next year with the roommates you want. This flyer will explain the basics and dispel any rumors. This flyer is especially for you, please read this thoroughly and pay attention to the calendar and read all Housing Selection information.

Housing Selection Information

- Housing Selection applications are available in the Office of Residence Life in the lower level of the Seay Administration Building (Room 013) or from your Resident Assistant (RA).
- All residents must pay their $300 non-refundable deposit to participate in housing selection.
- If you have any outstanding judicial sanctions, they must be completed.
- All residents must be registered as full time (12-credits) and will not be allowed to move in if you are not registered.
- You can "Squat" (stay in your own room) in Middle Campus.

Housing Selection Process

Housing numbers are determined by class rank randomly (by rank first then random selection):

First Year = 23 or less; Sophomore = 24-54; Junior = 55-86; Senior = 87 or more

-Groups may go with the person who has the best number

-Late applications result in being placed on a waiting list

-No deposit = not being able to participate in selection (not even on a waiting list) until fee is paid

-If you cannot be present at housing selection you must fill out a proxy form which will be available in the Office of Residence Life

Important Dates

4/5- Housing Applications Due to Office of Residence Life, 4/12- Housing numbers will be posted

4/16- Housing Selection Night for Apartment Housing, 4/17- Housing Selection Night for Traditional Housing

Residence Halls

Anderson Hall

This co-ed hall is used for vacation break housing. Students choosing to reside in Anderson Hall will need to accommodate students who are permitted to reside in the rooms of this hall during school breaks.

Lotte Hall

This co-ed hall is designated as a studious hall. All residents agree to provide a 24-hour quiet living community for each other. The floors of this hall are single sex.

Washabaugh Hall

This hall is co-ed by floor with a quiet wing. This hall has walk-in closets and built-in desks. A unique atrium provides a centrally located courtyard in this residence hall.

Van Winkle Hall

This hall is a women only residence. This hall provides both a quiet and non-quiet wings. Van Winkle is our smallest residence hall and is very popular because of its close knit community.
