

CAPE COD, Mass. – Neumann first baseman Jen Goslin has been named 2010 ECAC Division III South Softball Player of the Year. Goslin led her team with a .534 batting average and 52 RBI. She tallied 62 hits, including 19 doubles and five home runs. Goslin finished the season in the top five in Division III in batting average and walks (0.83/game). She helped lead the Knights to an NCAA Tournament berth.

Lauren Davis-Macedonia of Ursinus was named the ECAC Division III South Pitcher of the Year. Davis-Macedonia finished the season with a 19-5 record and a 0.73 ERA, which is good for fourth in Division III. She had 152 strikeouts on the season, while allowing opponents to hit just .150 against her.

Centenary's Cara Montferrat was selected as the ECAC Division III South Rookie of the Year. The catcher batted .417 with 56 runs batted in. She slugged an astounding .879, tallying 15 doubles, five triples and 12 home runs. She also was stellar defensively, with a .986 fielding percentage. Montferrat is tied for twelfth in Division III in home runs, and is ranked 15th in slugging percentage.

Lebanon Valley's Stacey Hollinger was named Coach of the Year. Hollinger led LVC to an overall record of 34-13, the most wins in program history. Hollinger led the Dutchmen to a regular season conference title. Lebanon Valley earned an at-large bid into the NCAA Division III Softball Championship.

Joining Goslin on the first team infield are Megan Donoghue (Lebanon Valley), Rhiannon Sorrentino (Alvernia), and Lauryn Weaver (Pitt-Bradford). First team outfield selections included Maria Vallone (Bethany), Brooke Tapman (Frostburg State) and Michelle Gravidahl (Salisbury). Jess LaValley (Merchant Marine Academy) joins the first team as a utility player, and Megan McInaw (FDU-Florham) was selected as a designated player. Joining Davis-Macedonia on the first team pitching staff is Kelly Leary of Salisbury.
